President's Report

I hope that you all have had a safe & happy Easter. It is a special time of the year.

We had an eventful time at the Theatre last month. One of our Fluorescent lights in the auditorium decided to catch fire during a rehearsal. Thankfully this was extinguished with hardly any damage done to the ceiling. We have since replaced all of the lighting in that area, since all of the fittings were of the same age. The City of Armadale have been very helpful in supplying the Electricians to install the new lighting. I also reported the loose wall sheeting around the Theatre & this has also been rectified by the council. It is encouraging to have the council responding to our needs, when we need them.

I also have engaged workers to repair some of the plastering in the Men's toilet. We will now get the tiles cleaned & re grouted before we give this area a much needed paint job. The men's toilet was desperately in need of repair, and is due for a makeover.

Many thanks to all, who helped with our stand at the Minnowarra Festival. We try to have a stand each year to promote the Theatre and its performances. We have been fortunate to secure new sponsorship for the Theatre. Bendigo Bank & Rob Fidock Real Estate have decided to come on board this year. Gerry has been instrumental in securing these two great companies on our behalf. I wish to thank him sincerely.

Don't forget to book you tickets for INTO THE WOODS. It has a great cast & the set looks fantastic. It should prove to be another amazing show not to be missed.

See you at the Theatre.
Regards Zyg

Membership Renewal

Theatre membership expires at the end of March every year and this means it is membership renewal time. Please use the membership form with this Callboy, visit the theatre website (www.roleystonetheatre.com.au) to print one off, or pick one up from the Theatre when you come to see a show.

This membership form then needs to be returned to the Theatre, along with payment ASAP. You can join/renew at any time during the year but renewing on time ensures you still get the benefits of membership.

If payment is not received, you will soon cease to receive the callboy and other member benefits. If you paid your membership during the November/December 2009 time period, you are covered for 2010.

Please contact Kylie Grima (membership officer) on membership@roleystonetheatre.com.au if you have any queries.

AUDITION NOTICE

3rd Year Curtin Student Film - "Publishing Jay"

PILOT SCENE + SHORT FILM

- AUDITION: April 16th
- Great experience
- Due to poor funding (we are but poverty stricken students) this is unpaid work.

George is a poor, lonely author whose only company is a mouse and his typewriter. He is trying to finish his books which lay scattered around his derelict house. All his books are based around his favourite character creation Jay. One day, George wakes up to find Jay has come to life. At first he is surprised, but eventually gets used to Jay's presence in the house. Things change however when Jay becomes possessive and violent. No matter what George does, Jay seems intent on ruining everything, especially the story George has worked so hard to finish....

- Required: NOTE: Stage ages apply

1 x male: George, 37+, a writer who lives alone. Reserved but friendly.

1 x male: Jay, 25+, a character in George's unfinished work that comes to life. Outgoing on the surface, vindictive underneath.

1 x female: Woman, 27+, a stranded passerby who befriends George. Bubbly and upfront.

Benefits:

It is the director's intention to enter the finished film in the West Australian Screen Awards (and other local competitions). While the actors won't be paid, this is a fantastic opportunity to get your face out there and possibly win awards at film festivals for strong performances. The lead male from Chasing Rabbits (a Curtin production) won best lead male at the West Australian Screen Awards! So don't miss out on a fantastic opportunity.
