2011 Panto needs helpers

Linda Rhodes would like help with her pantomime in the 2011 July school holidays. In particular need are stage manager, stage crew, set builders and general helpers.

Contact can be made through the theatre email address enquiries@roleystonetheatre.com.au and we will pass your information on to Linda.

Submission Deadline: Please phone through or email your submissions for next month's Callboy.

These need to be forwarded to me by the 1st of each month so there is plenty of time to get the edition completed, to the printer and then posted. Any information or photos are welcome and remember the Callboy is a great way to let other members know what is going on in the world of theatre and 'normal life'.

President's Report

It's been another busy month at the Theatre with lots of things happening. The electrical up-grade has finally been completed with numerous changes taking place. The council has provided a painter to complete a new look for the gents toilet. You will love the new colours. New carpet has just been laid in the foyer but the new vinyl that we choose will not arrive till mid December. We will just have to wait a bit longer.

New push bars on all the Exit doors have been installed by the councils carpenters this week. This is in accordance of new O.H.S rules laid down by the council. The theatre also had a visit this week by the C.E.O as well as other councillors from the City of Armadale. I gave a brief talk about the theatre past & present to those assembled & got some great feed back the next day. It seems that they were impressed.

We have a full program of shows selected for 2011, they include a Pantomime, One Act Season, a Musical as well as two plays. Should be great. I have started to get quotes on the new staging & will be going around cap in hand trying to extract funds for this much needed project.

I will be giving a more extensive report in the General Meeting to be held on the 19th October.

See you at the Theatre.
Regards Zyg

Kiosk and Bar volunteers for 'Nine' - November/December

Regardless of whether you are a regular volunteer, or have never yet set foot in the bar or kiosk, we would like to hear from you with dates that you can be available to help out for our upcoming production of 'Nine'.

Many of the regular volunteers are involved with the show, or their partner is and they're 'left with the baby', so we really need fresh faces to fill the slots.

The kiosk role is simple and you are all finished after the cleanup following intermission. To volunteer in the bar you need to have your RSA certificate and preferably some bar experience (though this is not essential) and be willing to stay 'till the close of the bar after the show.

March 2011 Season – Waiting for Godot (play)

Director Phil Mckenzie writes "I am thrilled that Roleystone has given the opportunity of directing a season of the wonderful Waiting For Godot as the 2011 opener. My aim is to give it a recognisable Australian flavour, without interfering with the highly entertaining (true!) and theatrical text. This means offering challenges to both cast and crew – challenges that I'm sure will be met. I am, of course, looking for volunteers of Roleystone's usually high standard of SM, Lighting, Props, Costumes and so on.

I also have a particular idea about setting the play in a stark Western Australian landscape which might have references to, say, the Gormley sculptures on Lake Ballard, touches of Nolan, Grey-Smith, Fred Williams, Juniper and all that lot rolled into one. Easy, really ... but I'm not a visual artist and won't have to do it myself.

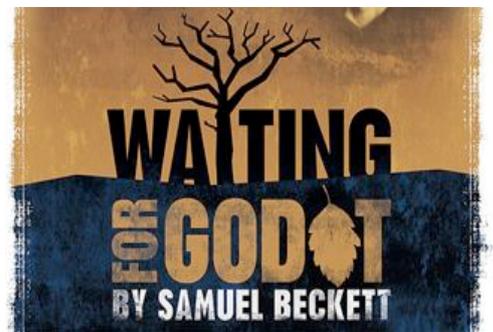

If you'd like to give any of the above mentioned roles a go please, please, call me asap on 9398 9958, 0407 905 970 or email : flipmac@three.com.au.

Auditions

Saturday 20 November 2010.

Please contact me for further information on the details above or check the Theatre and ITA websites.

No more waiting ... Godot is coming!

Singers Needed for 'Carols in Minnowarra'

I am putting together a singing group (male and female) to perform 2 songs at the Minnowarra Carols on Sunday 5th December 2010. The event will run from approximately 5pm and at this point I am unsure of our performance time.

At least 1 of the songs will be performed with the Armadale City Concert Band accompanying us.

We will organise rehearsals in October and November dependent on people's availability. The songs should be quite a simple arrangement so will not be onerous to learn. We will instead be going for a beautiful sound with limited preparation time!!

Please contact me ASAP (details on front page) to put your name down ☺ and let me know when's good for rehearsals.

I hope many of you will be part of this community-spirited endeavour, Bree Hartley

Vale Veronica

We were all very shocked and sadden of the passing of Veronica Overton-Low. She had just recently appeared in "MY FAIR LADY". Her love of Theatre was unbelievable. She would help any actor or director to improve their craft. Her directoral debut at Roleystone was the musical "THE FANTASTICKS".

She also directed a One Act Play written by her sister Jackie called "THE CHAIR" and her own self-written One Act Play 'WITHOUT A SCRIPT'. She appeared in 2 pantomimes here; "Jack & the Hasbeans" and "Mother Goose", as the beloved fairy where she showed her tremendous ability and talent to take on any role and make it her own. She also assisted on numerous occasions to run our Junior Workshops where she assisted in choreography, diction & stage movement.

Veronica spent a lot of her younger years at Channel Nine & a tribute to her has been set up on the internet. Take a look at watvhistory.com/2010/09/tribute-to-veronica-overton-low to view it yourself.

We will all miss you Veronica.
Rest in Peace LOVELY LADY

Actors' Quotes

I don't believe in astrology. The only stars I can blame for my failures are those that walk about the stage.

Noel Coward

I'm not Jack Nicholson. I'm not Brando. But I do mumble.

Benicio del Toro

First of all, I choose the great [roles], and if none of these come, I choose the mediocre ones, and if they don't come, I choose the ones that pay the rent.
